STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

STAN SPANGLER FANCLUB

It was a long time ago, in the days of the first of the great wars, that I first met Stan Spangler. He was then a young man of about twenty, and I was then a young man of about twenty. We were both students at the same university, and we were both members of the same club. We were both very fond of each other, and we were both very fond of the club. We were both very fond of each other, and we were both very fond of the club. We were both very fond of each other, and we were both very fond of the club. We were both very fond of each other, and we were both very fond of the club. We were both very fond of each other, and we were both very fond of the club.
